

Certified Lay SERVANT Annual Report (2020)
Barbara Zinck

Please read this notice before you begin:

Changes to Lay Servant Ministries certification and re-certification requirements, established at the 2016 General Conference, took effect on January 1, 2017. All Certified Lay Servants (CLS) must be up-to-date on their certification requirements as of 2020 Church Conference in order to be eligible for approval. To find out more about the legislation and changes to certification and re-certification requirements, click here.

In compliance with LSM legislation, the Baltimore-Washington Conference Committee on Lay Servant Ministries (CCLSM) must collect the data requested on this form. As such, all fields on this form are required.

Part 4: Personal and Spiritual Growth

In what activities, have you engaged in/or what books have you read or used during the past year to help you develop your devotional life; improve your understanding of the Bible; improve your understanding of the United Methodist Church; and to improve your skills in caring, leading, communication and speaking?

Certified Lay SERVANT Annual Report (2020)
Barbara Zinck

I read devotional books and the Bible each morning. I study the Bible with daily Bible study "Searching the Scriptures". Some of the books I have read this year include: The Method of Our Mission, United Methodist Polity and Organization; My Utmost for His Highest; The Mystery of God's Will; Prayer-Experiencing Awe and Intimacy with God; Jesus Calling For Christmas; If I Don't Make It, I Love You: Survivors in the Aftermath of School Shootings; The Ungrateful Refugee; Everything Happens for a Reason; When Breath Becomes Air; The Resurrection of the Son of God; Jesus Before Christianity; The Nickel Boys; The Reason For God; Bonhoeffer-Pastor, Martyr, Prophet; The Underground Railroad; White Fragility; How To be An Antiracist; The Language of God: A Scientist Presents Evidence for Belief; Jesus Lives; Jesus Calling; Abba Calling; and most importantly, the Bible.

Part 5: Feedback

5.1a. Do you feel called to be in service in any area of ministry, in the church or outside the church, in which you are not currently involved?

Yes

5.1b. If yes, please list those areas:

I feel called to work with refugees and immigrants in the US or in Europe and to volunteer to help eliminate racial injustice and inequity.

5.1c. Other comments about your year of ministry you would like to add:
